November 22, 2011

Dear Ship Family:

I know that everyone is thinking about Thanksgiving and the subsequent days away from campus, but I want to remind you about a very special program this weekend that will feature the university's Little Red Schoolhouse.

The Pennsylvania Cable Network will broadcast "The Little Red Schoolhouse" — an episode that was taped at the Mount Jackson Schoolhouse located on the Shippensburg campus — at the following times:

- 6 p.m. on Friday, November 25
- 2 p.m. on Saturday, November 26
- 10 a.m. on Monday, November 28

The program, taped on April 30, 2011 before a live audience, was part of an episode of Humanities on the Road, an arts and culture-themed television show presented by the Pennsylvania Humanities Council (PHC) and broadcast on PCN-TV. Shippensburg was selected from more than 75 organizations from across Pennsylvania to host the program presented by Dr. Jonathan Zimmerman, professor of education and history at New York University's Steinhardt School of Culture, Education and Human Development.

Promotional videos about the program are available at:

I hope you will have the chance to see one of the airings this weekend, but if you can't the program will be linked next week on our "Ship in the News" website at:

Best wishes for the holiday! I look forward to your return next week and completion of the semester.

Bill
