CONSENT FOR STUDENT RELEASE OF INFORMATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of aspects of a student's educational record that are not considered 'directory' information. Educational records include financial aid and student account records which are considered confidential and will not be released without written consent from the student, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. For this reason, it is necessary for the Financial Aid Office to obtain permission from a student in order to release financial information not excluded by FERPA laws. Please use Black Ink only.

In accordance with the Federal Education Rights and Privacy Act,
I, _____ the undersigned,
