Shippensburg University
College Honors Program
Application for Second-Semester Sophomores

The College Honors Program at Shippensburg University promotes interdisciplinary inquiry and undergraduate research. Honors students benefit from small classes, excellent teaching, exciting research, study abroad, and internship opportunities. Students also participate in special cultural, social, and community service activities. The Honors Program involves students in every major and class level. They come from a variety of backgrounds and have diverse academic and social interests. What they share is their desire to make the most of all the opportunities available to them at Shippensburg University.

Please submit your application by June 30 for admission in the fall semester and by December 1 for admission in the spring semester. Students must have earned at least a 3.25 QPA to be considered for admission to the College Honors Program. If you have any questions about the program, please contact the Honors Program director, Dr. Kim Klein, at kmklei@ship.edu or 717-477-1604 or visit our website, http://www.ship.edu/honors.
