Title IX Coordinator*

Title IX:

It is the policy of Shippensburg University to prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in any of its educational programs or activities. This policy is in accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Prohibited sex discrimination covers sexual harassment including sexual violence.

Discrimination:

Shippensburg University is committed to creating an environment free of discrimination in ensuring equal opportunity and access to educational, employment, and contract opportunities for its community. The University will make every effort to provide these opportunities to all persons regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity. The University prohibition against discrimination and harassment applies to all University operations and programs, administrators, faculty, staff, volunteers, students, vendors, and contractors.

A member of Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education

Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania, in compliance with federal and state laws and university policy, is committed to human understanding and provides equal educational, employment, and economic opportunities for all persons without regard to race, color, sex, age, creed, national origin, religion, veteran status, or disability.
