Fact

University to host diversity summit Nov. 21-22

The university will host the 2013 PASSHE Diversity Summit Nov. 21 and 22. All members of the campus community are invited to participate.

The summit's theme is "Inclusive Excellence and International Education: Expanding Our Community Together." This year's summit also includes a disabilities component.

Among the speakers at the summit are:

Frank T. Brogan, new chancellor of PASSHE.

Dr. Damon A. Williams, senior vice president for programs, training, and youth development services for the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, will speak on inclusive excellence and equitable educational outcomes.

Dr. Stephan J. Smith, executive director of the Association on Higher Education Disability will speak on disability and inclusion in the global community.

The program will include:

Combined presentation on the CUE Equity Scorecard project and EDI's national Access 2 Success initiative;

Peer-reviewed presentations by PASSHE faculty, social equity officers, multicultural affairs staff, international education directors, disability service providers, human resources managers, and others will report on research, program design and success, and professional perspectives; and PASSHE-wide affinity groups in the areas of diversity/inclusion and international programs/perspectives will be provided opportunities to meet during the summit.

Additional information and registration details can be found at the summit's website at www.ship.edu/PASSHE-Summit.

PRR meetings set for Oct. 23, 31

Open forums on the Middle States Periodic Review Report (PRR) are Oct. 23 in CUB 119 and Oct. 31 in LL 205 from 3:30 to 4:30pm.

Members of the campus community are strongly encouraged to attend the forums and provide feedback on the draft of this critical accreditation report. The draft can be reviewed on the MyShip webpage. Individuals wishing to provide comments but who are unable to attend one of the forums may send them to Dr. Tracy Schoolcraft at tascho@ship.edu or Dr. Sara Grove at sagrov@ship.edu.

A publication for the faculty, staff associates, and friends of Shippensburg University • Vol. 25 No. 13 • Oct. 21, 2013

SHIPPENSBURG UNIVERSITY

Homecoming 2013

"Where Stars Are Born" is the theme of the 2013 Homecoming that begins Oct. 21 and culminates with a series of events Oct. 26. Events during Homecoming Oct. 26 include:

Sixth Annual SU Homecoming Service Project at King's Kettle Food Pantry.

Thirty-fourth Annual SU Army ROTC 5K or 10K Run from Heiges Field House. Proceeds support Azalea Charities Run for Wounded Warriors and SU ROTC Battalion. For information, contact Capt. John Crumley at 1892 or by e-mail at jpcrumley.ship.edu.

Tailgate party behind Seth Grove Stadium. Tickets are required for the luncheon with advance purchase suggested as a limited number of tickets will be available for sale that day.

Red Raiders host West Chester at 1 p.m. in Seth Grove Stadium

Volleyball hosts Lock Haven at 1 p.m.

Women's soccer hosts Seton Hill at 3:30 p.m.

President's Postgame Supper. Tickets are required for this free event.

Men's soccer hosts Seton Hill at 6 p.m.

The Australian Bee Gees Show will be performed in the H. Ric Luhrs Performing Arts Center. For details and tickets, go to www.luhrscenter.com or call 477-SHOW.

The full listing of events is available online at www.ship.edu/alumni with instructions on how to register for the various events, if needed. For more information, call the Alumni Office at 477-1218 or send an e-mail to alumni@ship.edu.

In addition, the student SU Homecoming Committee chooses a philanthropy to receive a donation consisting of the proceeds collected during homecoming events beginning the week of Oct. 21. Last year, students raised more $10,000 for the Better Days Animal League and Women In Need of Chambersburg. This year, the committee has selected the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's Central Pennsylvania Chapter for its 2013 charity.

Grove earns honor

The John L. Grove College of Business at Shippensburg University has earned its second national honor this semester.

The Princeton Review has named Grove College as one of the best business schools in the nation in its "The Best 295 Business Schools." The annual book was published Oct. 8.

In September, Grove College was again recognized in U.S. News & World Report's "Best Undergraduate Business Programs" category. The college was ranked 342 out of 681 undergraduate programs accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. The ranking was determined in survey last spring of deans and senior faculty at all AACSB accredited undergraduate business programs.

The Princeton Review's survey asks business school students about their school's academics, student body and campus life as well as about themselves and their career plans.

Kudos

Dr. Wendy S. Becker, associate professor of management, had her co-authored article "The EuroPsy specialist certificate in work and organizational psychology" published in the Industrial-Organizational Psychologist.

Dr. Billy Henson, assistant professor of criminal justice, co-authored article "Fear of Crime Online? Examining the Effect of Risk, Previous Victimization, and Exposure on Fear of Online Interpersonal Victimization" was accepted for publication in the Journal of Contemporary Criminal Justice. His co-authored article "Digital Deviance: Low Self-Control and Opportunity as Explanations of Sexting Among College Students" was accepted for publication in Sociological Spectrum.

Dr. Charlene Lane, assistant professor of social work and gerontology, will present at the International Conference on Aging and Society Nov. 8 to 9 in Chicago.

Dr. Dorlisa Minnick, assistant professor of social work and gerontology, had her paper "Building Social Enterprise Capacity Among Women-Focused NGOs in Guatemala" accepted for presentation in the symposium "Social Entrepreneurship: Building a Research Agenda for Social Work" during the 2014 Annual Conference of the Society for Social Work and Research in San Antonio Jan. 15 to 19, 2014.

Dr. Kate McGivney, professor of mathematics and STEM-UP PA PI, and Dr. Alice Armstrong, associate professor of mathematics and STEM-UP PA Co-PI presented "Understanding the Influence of Unconscious Bias in the Hiring Process" at the PASSHE human resources conference the university recently hosted. In September McGivney and Dr. Sarah N. Bryant, STEM-UP PA project manager, presented the same talk to faculty and administrators at Elizabethtown College.

Dr. Sally Paulson, associate professor of exercise science, participated in The Teaching Professor Technology Conference in Atlanta. The trip was funded through an Academic Innovation Conference Grant from the Office of Professional, Continuing, and Distance Education.

Dr. José Ricardo-Osorio, interim associate dean in the College of Arts and Sciences, was re-appointed for a three-year term on the Pennsylvania State Modern Languages Association (PSMLA) Executive Council. He will also co-chair the 2014 PSMLA conference in State College.

Dr. Freddy Siahaan, associate professor of economics; Dr. Daniel Y. Lee, professor of economics; and Dr. David E. Kalist, associate professor of economics, had their paper "Educational Attainment of Children of Immigrants: Evidence from the National Longitudinal Survey of Youth" accepted for publication in Economics of Education Review.

Dr. Paul Taylor, associate professor of mathematics, had his article "Starting an actuarial program with existing resources" accepted for publication in the journal PRIMUS – Problems, Resources, and Issues in Mathematics Undergraduate Studies.

Fact

Fact is published by the Office of University Communications and Marketing for current and retired employees. The next issue is Nov. 4.

Deadline to submit material to SUnews@ship.edu is noon Monday the week before publication.

Shippensburg University is an equal opportunity educational institution.

Poetry reading

Dr. Vincent Guerra of the English department will present a poetry reading at 3:30 p.m. Oct. 24 in Dauphin Humanities Center 051.

Guerra, who recently earned his Ph.D. from Florida State University, teaches poetry, writing and literature classes at Shippensburg. His poems have appeared widely in prestigious journals including the Boston Review, Narrative Magazine, Crazyhorse, and Meridian.

The presentation is sponsored by the Professional Development Committee, The Reflector and The Creative Writing Committee.

For information, contact Neil Connelly at noconnelly@shipedu.

Vietnam trip

Twelve students and alumni will travel to Vietnam this winter break 2013-14 to participate in a service-learning opportunity to construct a school for an impoverished village in the Mekong Delta region of Vietnam. The trip, sponsored by United Campus Ministry, will be the sixth trip students have made to the region.

Participating students, to offset the group costs of the trip, are looking to participate in fundraisers to help raise money. They are willing to assist community members with household chores, including yard work (e.g., raking leaves), cleaning, grocery shopping, household maintenance, or other household tasks in return for any donation to assist with the expenses.

Individuals who have work for the students are asked to contact the Rev. Jan Bye at ext. 1672 or at jmbyeshipedu.

Conservation law

The university will host a free, public program Oct. 24 on conservation law.

The program begins at 7 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Ceddia Union Building. Chad Eyler, chief of the Special Permits Enforcement Division of the Pennsylvania Game Commission, will present "Crimes Against Nature: Conservation Law and the History of Wildlife Protection in the South Mountain Region."

State Sen. Richard Alloway, majority chair of the Senate Game and Fisheries Committee, will provide brief opening remarks.

After the lecture is a panel discussion on contemporary conservation law issues by Rich Mislitsky, chair of the Governor's Advisory Council for Hunting, Fishing and Conservation; and Dr. Nathan Thomas, assistant professor of biology at Shippensburg University.

Bloomsburg bus trip

The Student Senate and University Union & Student Activities are sponsoring a fan bus to the Raiders versus Bloomsburg football game Oct. 31. The 8 p.m. game will also be broadcast live on CBS Sports Network.

The bus leaves at 4 p.m. from Cumberland Drive and will return immediately following the game.

Tickets, available at the CUB information desk, are $10 for Ship students and $25 for non-Ship students. Game tickets will be sold separately at the gate for $5 for college students and senior citizens and $10 for adults.

For information, contact the information desk at ext. 1693.

Crime program

The Department of Criminal Justice will sponsor "Crime in the Suites: Corporate and Occupational Deviance" at 7 p.m. on Oct. 29 in the Tuscarora Room. The panel is also hosted by the student Criminal Justice Club.

Dr. Cynthia Koller, assistant professor of criminal justice is the panel moderator. Panelists are Dr. James E. Benton, associate professor of accounting and finance; Dr. Jerry Carbo, associate professor of management; Dr. Laura Patterson, assistant professor of criminal justice; Dr. Lynn F. Baynum, associate professor of reading/literacy in the teacher education department; and Dr. Patricia A. Patrick, associate professor of accounting.

For more information contact Koller at cakoller@ship.edu.

International programs

International Education Week is Oct. 21 through 25.

A variety of events will take place throughout the week and are open to the entire campus community. It is sponsored by Department of International Studies and the Office of International Programs. The full list of events is at www.ship.edu/iew. The events include:

Oct. 21: Showing of the film The Intouchables, 6:30 p.m., Dauphin Humanities Center 051. After the film, Dr. Blandine Mitaut from the modern languages department will give a short talk on the French context of the film.

Oct. 22: Immersion Afternoon, 3:30 to 4:30 p.m., Rowland Hall 100, 101, 103, 106, 117, 200.

Study Abroad: Where Did You Go, What Did You Do & Would You Do It Again? Orndorff Theatre, CUB, 7 p.m. Students will discuss their personal overseas study and travel experiences to countries including the Dominican Republic, England, Germany, Haiti, South Korea, and Spain.

Oct. 23: Ship World Party: A Taste of the World at Ship, Tuscarora Room, 3:30 to 5 p.m. Ethnic foods will be available for sampling, and children are welcome to attend.

International Foods Night, Reisner Dining Hall, 4 to 7 p.m. The dinner meal must be purchased upon entrance into Reisner.

Oct. 24: Study Abroad 101 information session, 4 p.m., CUB 232.

Individuals may also sit in on a language class during the week and international flags made by Grace B. Luhrs University Elementary School students will be on display on the library quad.

Coming soon . . .

Oct. 21 to 26 Homecoming 2013 Week. For information on events, go to www.ship.edu/alumni or to www.clubs.ship.edu/SUHomecoming.

Oct. 21 to 22 International Education Week. For information, go to www.ship.edu/iew.

21 Speaker Dr. Garrison Nelson, University of Vermont, "A Discussion of Supreme Court History," 6:30 p.m., OM Chapel.

24 Poetry reading by Dr. Vincent Guerra, 3:30 p.m., Dauphin 051.
South Mountain Speaker Series: Chad Eyler, Pennsylvania Game Commission, on "Crimes Against Nature: Conservation Law and the History of Wildlife Protection in the South Mountain Region," 7 p.m., CUB MPR.

25 Women's soccer hosts UPJ, 3:30 p.m.
Men's soccer hosts UPJ, 6 p.m.
Volleyball hosts UPJ, 7 p.m.

26 Football hosts West Chester, 1 p.m.
Volleyball hosts Lock Haven, 1 p.m.
Women's soccer hosts Seton Hill, 3:30 p.m.
Men's soccer hosts Seton Hill, 6 p.m.
The Australian Bee Gees Show, 8 p.m., H. Ric Luhrs Performing Arts Center. For information and tickets call 477-SHOW or go to www.luhrscenter.com.

29 Field hockey hosts East Stroudsburg, 4 p.m.
Panel presentation: "Crime in the Suites: Corporate and Occupational Deviance," 7 p.m., Tuscarora Room
Performance by Trio La Malpa, woodwind trio, 7:30 p.m., OM Chapel.

30 Volleyball hosts Point Park, 7 p.m.
Earth, Wind & Fire, 8 p.m., H. Ric Luhrs Performing Arts Center. For information and tickets call 477-SHOW or go to www.luhrscenter.com.

Nov. 1 Men's and women's swimming host Fairmont State, 5 p.m.
Women's swimming hosts California, 5 p.m.

Nov. 2 Men's and women's swimming host IUP, 1 p.m.
Men's soccer hosts Slippery Rock, 1 p.m.
Women's soccer hosts Slippery Rock, 3:30 p.m.
Jim Belushi & The Chicago Board of Comedy, 8 p.m., H. Ric Luhrs Performing Arts Center. For information and tickets call 477-SHOW or go to wwwluhrscentercom.

For more details on university events, please go to http://www.ship.edu/events.
For more details on athletic events, please go to http://www.shipraiders.com.