With a Bachelor's degree in foreign language, you can use your skills in speaking, reading, and writing in such careers as foreign service, international business, communications technology, travel and tourism, airlines work, translation, and interpretation, public health, social services, law enforcement, education, and many fields which require contact with the public. For some careers, a minor or a double major is beneficial. Students are encouraged to study in a foreign country to attain maximum proficiency in their chosen foreign language.
