Helpful Hints for Advising:

YEAR I Any introductory language courses necessary
Students planning to teach Spanish will find it to their advantage to work for dual certification in two modern languages, a modern language and English, or a modern language and another field. To achieve dual certification, a student must have the approval of both departments involved, follow an approved course of studies in the specialty areas, take the appropriate methods course, and complete student teaching in both fields.

See the Modern Languages Department for details.

All Spanish & Spanish Secondary Education Certification B.A. students must pass the ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview prior to graduation and reach the advanced low level minimum.

All education majors must pass the first level of PRAXIS assessments PPST reading, math, and writing between 48 and 60 credits of course work. These basic skills tests must be passed before students are permitted to take any 300 level or above education courses.
