Camp philosophy

Shippensburg University plans to provide an experience that you and your son(s) will remember throughout your lives. By offering this overnight camp, you can enjoy the father/son bond of friendship and encouragement while developing your basketball skills. Director Dave Springer and his SU staff and players will provide detailed instruction to both son and father. Our goal is to outline a basic skill development program that parents can employ to help their son practice and improve in the fundamentals of basketball.
