Day 1 - Friday, January 15

7:30 AM - 9:30 AM

Residence Halls Open for Check-in. Welcome to Shippensburg University! We're glad that you're finally here. Please report to your assigned residence hall for check-in. The residence halls will not be available prior to this time. Orientation Leaders will be glad to help you unload your vehicle near your residence hall. Upon unloading your belongings onto the sidewalk, promptly move your vehicle to one of the designated lots. Your room key will be available in your residence hall during check-in. Once you have your items moved in, please report to the Ceddia Union Building (CUB) for New Student Registration.

8:30 AM - 9:30 AM

New Student Registration. Great Hall, Ground Floor, CUB. Students will pick up their Orientation materials and have the opportunity to speak with representatives from campus services, local banks, and the Pennsylvania State Credit Union (PSECU).

* Hospitality Desk. CUB 123B (located in front of Orndorff Theatre). A place to ask questions and get directions from Orientation Team members.

* Placement Testing. Horton Hall 022. Students who are still required to complete placement testing should arrive for test registration at this time. Testing begins promptly at 9:15 AM. Students must have a photo ID. Transfer students should check with their deans’ office regarding any testing requirements.

* ID Photos. Anchor Meeting Room 1, CUB 103. Resident and commuter students should have a photo taken for their SU ID. Photo IDs will be available for pick up at the conclusion of lunch.

* Office of Disability Services. Anchor Meeting Room 2, CUB 104.

* Refreshments. Raider Dining Room, CUB 001.

9:30 AM - 10:25 AM

Opening Session/New Student Convocation. MPR B & C, CUB 100 B & C.

* Welcome and greetings from university officials and Dr. David Lovett, Associate Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students.

* Inspiring Your Future: Stories About Thriving at Ship. Convocation ceremony by Dr. Sarah Stokely, Dean of Academic Engagement & Student Support, and Orientation Leaders.

* Overview of the program, student packet review, and an opportunity for brief questions with Donna Gross, Director of New Student Orientation.

10:30 AM - 10:55 AM

Interest Mini-Sessions 1. Please attend one of the following:

* Building the Bridge to Your Success. Orndorff Theatre, CUB 123. Speakers: Victoria Kerr, Director, Career and Community Engagement Center (CCEC), and Brooke Deschenes, CCEC Graduate Assistant. These presenters will provide information regarding CCEC services, workshops, career fairs, campus job opportunities, and internships.

* Creating CitizenSHIP. Anchor Meeting Room 4, CUB 119. Speaker: Brandy Lautsbaugh, New Student Orientation Graduate Assistant. Ms. Lautsbaugh will deliver information regarding on- and off-campus living, rights and responsibilities of a Shippensburg University student, and safety on campus and in the surrounding Shippensburg community.

* Money Matters. MPR A, CUB 100 A. Speakers: Trina Snyder, Interim Director of Financial Aid & Scholarships, and Dawn Cutshall, Bursar. These representatives will provide information on FAFSA deadlines, loans, scholarships, billing, payments, payment plans, accessing information, and money management tips.
