

POLICY STATEMENT ON INVOCATIONS AND BENEDICTIONS

It shall be the position of Shippensburg University to support the presentation of the invocation and benediction at campus activities. The invocation and benediction must not make reference to any specific religious affiliation or ideology. The invocation and benediction must be universal and nondenominational. The participation of any Shippensburg University constituent will be on a voluntary basis for any campus activity where the invocation and/or benediction is presented.

Approved at President's Cabinet on 10/21/91.
