

Shippensburg
University

*A proud member of Pennsylvania's
State System of Higher Education*

Position Announcement

About Shippensburg — Shippensburg University, established in 1871, is a comprehensive public institution offering baccalaureate and master's degree programs in three colleges: Arts and Sciences, Business, and Education/Human Services.

Approximately 6,500 undergraduate and 1,000 graduate students are enrolled. There are more than 300 full-time faculty members. The 200-acre campus includes more than 40 buildings.

Shippensburg University is situated in a community of 6,600 in the scenic Cumberland Valley of southcentral Pennsylvania, 40 miles southwest of Harrisburg and 90 miles northwest of Washington, D.C.

Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania, in compliance with federal and state laws and university policy, is committed to human understanding and provides equal educational, employment, and economic opportunities for all persons without regard to race, color, gender, age, creed, national origin, religion, veteran status, or disability.

Shippensburg University is an equal opportunity educational employer.