Dear Ship family:

Now that the Fall 2011 semester is off and running, I thought I would drop a note to first thank everyone for all they do for Ship and, in that spirit, remind all that each and every Friday at Shippensburg University is Raiders Day.

On Raiders Day Friday, we celebrate the academic and athletic success of Shippensburg University by wearing our school colors — Red and Blue. You should also feel comfortable that even though you have something that is not red and blue, but has our logo or lettering on it, be comfortable to wear that as well.

Ship is a great place to learn and work, and Raiders Day Friday is a great way to celebrate our success!

Go Ship!! Go Raiders!

Bill

P.S. – Please feel free to wear appropriate red and blue or logo gear the other days of the week if you like as well.
