

In celebration of National Distance Learning Week

The Office of the Chancellor presents a FREE series of seminars for Faculty, Staff and Administrators on

Teaching and Technology

Each interactive session will be delivered live using Wimba and use the following Wimba room:

<http://passhe2.wimba.com/launcher.cgi?room=NDLW>

Monday, November 9th	Time	Presenter
The Intersection Between Technology and the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning	3-4pm	Robert Aucoin Researcher and associate faculty at Royal Roads University in Victoria, Canada. His research interests include emerging technologies as they apply to the scholarship of teaching and learning and professional development. He is currently working on his doctorate at the University of British Columbia which focuses on implementation models for ICTs including Amartya Sen's Capability Framework.
Tuesday, November 10th	Time	Presenter
Lecture Capture	10-11am	Dr. William Brescia Director of Instructional Technology, Office of Medical Education at the University of Tennessee Health Science Center. Bill authored and co-authored numerous publications in instructional technology, distance learning, and made in excess of 60 presentations at international, national and regional conferences. His research interests include developing strategies for improving interaction in online learning, web-based mentoring, distance learning, and older learners use of technology.
Enhancing Learning Through Classroom Technology	3-4pm	Randy Gottfried Manager, Presentation & Technology Services at the University of Montana. Randy has been involved in distance education and learning technology since 1992.

Wednesday, November 11th	Time	Presenter
Technology-Enhanced Strategies to Increase Learner Engagement	3-4pm	Bethany Bovard, ABD Faculty and staff at New Mexico State University. In her role as faculty, she teaches a number of courses about teaching and learning online and administration of distance education programs. As staff, she develops online courses and programs for NMSU. Bethany also collaborates with Sloan-C in a number of areas including developing and facilitating workshops.
Thursday, November 12th	Time	Presenter
Copyright & Distance Learning	10-11am	Steven Armatas A shareholder with the law firm of Buckingham, Doolittle & Burroughs, LLP and chairman of the Business Practice Group for the firm's Canton, Ohio office. He has more than 18 years of experience in the areas of corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, federal and state securities law matters and copyright and trademark issues related to businesses and educational institutions. Mr. Armatas received his B.A. degree from Harvard College and his J.D. degree from Harvard Law School, graduating with honors from both institutions. Mr. Armatas is a frequent lecturer on the topic of distance learning and copyright. He recently published "Distance Learning and Copyright: A Guide to Legal Issues".
Things that Work for Me: An Exemplary Course winner shares methods she uses to reduce frustration, promote active participation, and integrate various technologies to support learning in her online course.	3-4pm	Dr. Cheryl Murphy Associate Professor of Educational Technology and Program Coordinator Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Arkansas. Founder of the EDTEC program.
Friday, November 13th	Time	Presenter
Soup to Nuts: Lessons Learned from Building on Online Program	10-11am	Dr. Rick Milter Professor of Management at the Carey Business School of Johns Hopkins University. Rick has held previous teaching positions at Ohio University, Boston College, Universiti Teknologi MARA (Shah Alam, Malaysia), the University at Albany, Loyola University of Chicago, and Janus Pannonius University (Pecs, Hungary). Rick co-designed and served as director for a project-based action learning MBA program that achieved award recognition for "best practice" by the International Association for Management Education (AACSB) and "creative excellence" by the University Continuing Education Association (UCEA).

For more information, contact:

Bob Hails, Distance Learning Coordinator

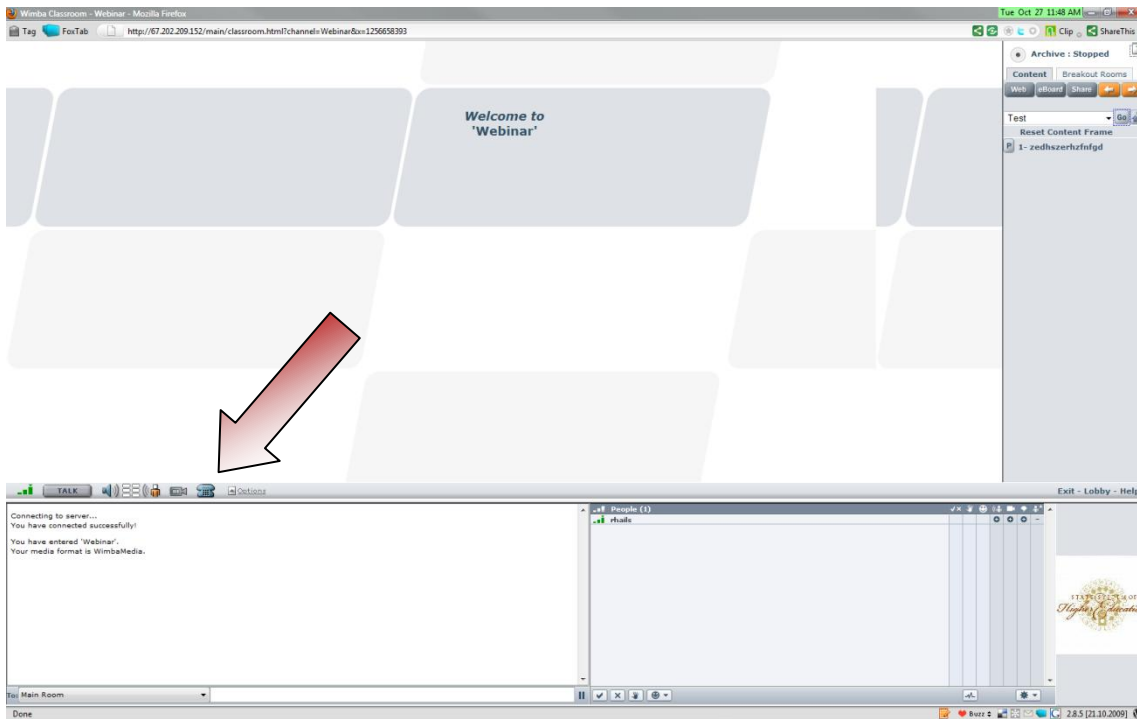

rhails@passhe.edu

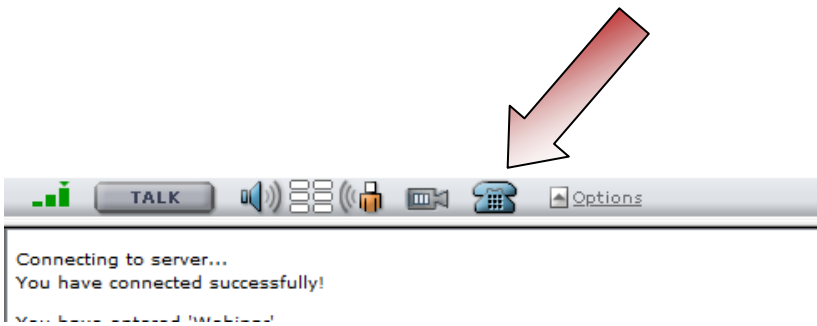

717-720-4204

Each session will be live and interactive using Wimba. The same virtual room in Wimba will be used for all the sessions:

<http://passhe2.wimba.com/launcher.cgi?room=NDLW>

No username or password is required. After entering the room, click on the telephone icon to reveal the phone number and unique PIN for the audio bridge.

PREPARE YOUR COMPUTER TODAY =====

You MUST take a few minutes to walk through the Wimba Setup Wizard before participating in the live event to ensure a seamless online experience. Also, please have your "Pop Up Blocker" turned off.

You may run the wizard by clicking the following link: <http://passhe2.wimba.com/wizard/wizard.html.pl>

If you require additional assistance at any time, please contact Wimba technical support: 24x7 technicalsupport@wimba.com or 866.350.4978

=====

Tips:

- If using a speakerphone, please mute when not speaking.
- If using a speakerphone, be as close as possible to the phone when speaking.
- If using a telephone, mute computer speakers.
- If your office uses music-on-hold, don't put the call on hold.

=====