SU FAST PITCH SOFTBALL CAMP

This is an intense, high-impact camp designed to improve individual skills regardless of the player’s current skill level. The objectives will be reached by intense and concentrated practice of fundamental skills and techniques of softball.

- Designed to develop and improve players’ individual skills and competition performance
- Intense one-on-one instruction
- Six hours of instruction, analysis, and games per day

FEATURES

All participants will generally practice and play in their own age groups. However, dependent upon skill level, we reserve the right to move a participant up or down the age groups.

All campers will receive instruction in hitting, infield, and outfield. If you wish instruction in pitching or catching, you must select one of the two as your primary position. The participant will have the use of all the latest training aids including soft toss and pitching machines, batting cages, speed guns, soft hand gloves, wrist watch bats and clicker stick bats.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Applications will be accepted up to one week prior to the start of camp. Applications submitted after that day will not be accepted. If paying by check or money order, you have the option of paying the entire amount or submitting at least a $75 deposit with the balance due one week prior to start of camp. An administrative fee of $75 will be deducted from all refunds. No refunds will be given after on-campus check-in. Conference Services reserves the right to cancel any camp that has insufficient enrollment up to two weeks before the opening of camp. A full refund will be given if the camp is canceled.

STAFF

The camp will be taught by the Shippensburg University coaching staff and a select group of highly qualified coaches and collegiate players. The camper/staff ratio will be approximately 12:1. The permanent staff for the camp includes the following:

ALISON VAN SCYOC
Alison Van Sycoc is the head softball coach at Shippensburg University. She is entering her fourth season as the head coach at Shippensburg University. In her first three seasons as head coach, Shippensburg has qualified for the PSAC tournament. Last season the Raiders placed second in the PSAC East Conference. As an assistant, Van Sycoc helped guide the 2013 and 2014 teams to their PSAC Conference Championships and to two regional appearances. She has significant knowledge in all areas of the game including hitting, defense, slapping and pitching. Prior to coaching Van Sycoc had a four-year playing career at the University of Virginia where she primarily caught and played outfield.

DINA CHIAPPELLI:
Dina Chiappelli is an assistant coach at Shippensburg University. She assists in all facets of the game. She comes to Shippensburg after finishing her playing career at Alvernia University in 2011. At Alvernia, she was a utility player spending time at Shortstop, 2nd base, and in the outfield. She has great insight into the mental approach to the physical demands of softball.

EMILY GOSHORN
Emily Goshorn is the pitching coach for Shippensburg University. She is a 2014 alumna of Shippensburg. Goshorn had a tremendous career at Shippensburg, finishing third all time in wins by a pitcher, second all-time in strikeouts, and second all-time in strikeouts per seven innings. She has significant knowledge in coaching and teaching pitchers of all ages.

DANIELLE THACKER
Danielle Thacker is the Raiders full-time assistant coach helping in all areas of the game, while focusing primarily on pitching. Prior to Shippensburg, she made coaching stops at Richard Bland College, Shepherd University, Moravian College, Wilkes University and the University of New Mexico. She is well versed in all aspects of the game and is especially adept at teaching pitching. She was a standout pitcher at the University of New Mexico ranking among the top ten in several career statistical categories. She demands toughness and focus in everything that she does.

* Additional collegiate coaches and players will be added at a later date. Staff subject to change.
