ABOUT THE DIRECTORS
Gretchen Leitner is a children's theatre specialist. She also is an instructor and guest artist at Shippensburg University. Dr. Paul Leitner has been a theatre arts professor for over twenty years at Shippensburg University.

The Leitners co-created The Little Princess Playhouse Children's Theatre Program at Shippensburg University for nine seasons. Their productions included: Cinderella, Beauty and the Beast, Snow White, and many other children's favorites.

Last spring, they directed the musical The Wizard of Oz at Shippensburg Area Middle School. Currently, they are producing children's theatre in collaboration with the Grace L. Luhrs Elementary School. In November, they produced The Candy Land Caper and Fairy Tale News. In May, they will produce four mythology plays, including King Midas and the Golden Touch.

This SU camp is part of the Leitners personal effort to enhance elementary education in the region through exposure to live theatre.
