GENERAL CAMP INFORMATION

REGISTER EARLY
Space is limited to facilitate individual attention. Four-person suites will be assigned on a first registered, first accommodated basis.

WHAT TO BRING:
☐ A certificate of health must be presented by each participant at the camp’s registration. If you register by mail, a standard form will be sent. Health forms are available for download on our website at ship.edu/camps. This form does not require a physician’s examination or signature.
☐ Shorts, shirts, pants, volleyball sneakers, socks, knee pads, and swim suit. Water bottles will be provided.

RECREATIONAL FACILITIES
Indoor swimming, indoor and outdoor basketball courts (if available), outdoor volleyball courts, tennis courts, and handball courts.

HOUSING
Campers will be housed in suite style residence halls. Amenities include air-conditioning and a bathroom for every two campers. You will need to bring sheets, pillow, pillow case, towels, blankets, and washcloths with you. Washers and dryers are available on each floor in the residence hall and are free to use.

HEALTH SERVICES
The Etl Health Center at Shippensburg University is available for first aid treatment of minor illnesses and injuries. Hours of operation vary throughout the year and are listed on the health center website ship.edu/health_center. If an illness or injury requires additional medical care, with consent of parent or legal guardian of child under the age of eighteen, arrangements may be made for an appointment with the campus physician during physician hours. If there is a medical emergency the camper will be transported via ambulance to an emergency room.

ACCESSIBILITY RESOURCES
Requests for accommodations, auxiliary aids, or services must be made in writing to the Office of Accessibility Resources at least fifteen (15) days before the camp begins. The Office of Accessibility Resources is located at Shippensburg University, 1871 Old Main Drive, Shippensburg, PA 17257-2299, (717) 477-1364, oar@ship.edu.
ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

LEANNE PISCOTTY, Head Coach, Shippensburg University

Leanne Piscotty enters her seventeenth season as the head volleyball coach at Shippensburg University after another great season with a record of 26-7. Her 2019 squad qualified for the PSAC conference championship for the sixteenth consecutive season and qualified for their fifth consecutive appearance in the NCAA Atlantic Region tournament as the fourth seed, which is the program’s eighth appearance. This 2019 squad earned several individual accolades. Samantha Webber and Emily Hangen earned first team Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) all conference and American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Atlantic Region First Team awards. Gabbie Johnson received second team All PSAC and NCAA all tournament team. Kendell Johnson and Megan Forstburg also claimed third team all PSAC honors.

One of Piscotty’s best seasons in 2015, her squad won the PSAC Conference Championship and tied the school record for most wins in a season finishing 30-9. The team also qualified for the NCAA tournament earning the third seed, which is the highest NCAA seed to date. Piscotty was named the 2015 AVCA Atlantic region Coach of the Year. DeForia, was named the PSAC Championship tournament Most Valuable Player, which is the program’s first.

A four-time PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the Year and SU’s all-time volleyball coaching wins leader, Piscotty has a career record of 371-211 dating back to the start of the 2004 season. Her teams have reached the PSAC Tournament fourteen times in sixteen seasons, including thirteen-in-a-row. Piscotty’s players have compiled one All American, seventeen All-Region, and forty-nine All-PSAC awards.

A native of Shippensburg, Piscotty began her coaching career as a volunteer coach at her Penn State alma mater for the 1993 and 1994 seasons, which were the first two years that the Penn State women’s volleyball program existed. After assistant coaching a volunteer coach at her Penn State alma mater for the 1993 and 1994 seasons, which were the first two years that the Penn State women’s volleyball program existed. After assistant coaching for two seasons at Bradley University, Leanne Piscotty enters her seventeenth season as the head volleyball coach at Shippensburg University after another great season with a record of 26-7. A native of Shippensburg, Piscotty began her coaching career as a volunteer coach at her Penn State alma mater for the 1993 and 1994 seasons, which were the first two years that the Penn State team became regional champions and advanced to the Final Four.

Later, she became the assistant coach for two seasons at Bradley University. In her time with the Braves, Piscotty was a part of a staff that produced the best single-season turnaround in Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) history, improving the team from a 3-19 record in 1998 to a 20-6 record in 1999.

Following her graduation from Shippensburg Area Senior High School, Piscotty played for Penn State from 1989-92 and was selected as an AVCA First Team All-American in 1991 and 1992. A two-time All-Big Ten First-Team selection, Piscotty was named Big Ten Player of the Year as a senior in 1992 and was elected to the Pennsylvania Volleyball Coaches Association (PVCA) Hall of Fame in 1993. The Lady Lions’ 44-1 record in 1990 still stands as the school record for wins in a season during which they set the then-NCAA record for consecutive matches won. Following her playing career, Piscotty spent two seasons as a student assistant coach from 1993-94 under her former coach, AVCA Hall of Famer Russ Rose. She assisted in producing Penn State’s first two national semifinal appearances in the NCAA Division I Women’s Volleyball Championship, including the program’s first-ever national championship appearance in 1993. A member of the U.S. Olympic Festival team in 1990 and the 1993 US National Team, Piscotty also played for the United States in the World University Games in 1993 and in the Italian Professional Volleyball League in 1994 and has played in the Chesapeake Bay Region in the Women’s United States Volleyball Association (USVA). She was elected into the Shippensburg Area Senior High School Athletic Hall of Fame in 2007. Piscotty earned her Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology from Penn State in 1997. She lives in Carlisle with her husband, Dan, and their Rottweilers, Eva and Lexi.

STAFF

The staff will include a variety of college and high school coaches as well as collegiate players. Staff subject to change.
