SHIPPENSBURG UNIVERSITY

MSCHE 2019 ACCREDITATION REVIEW

SELF-STUDY DESIGN:
DEMONSTRATING OUR DISTINCTIONS...IN SERVICE TO OUR STUDENTS, COMMUNITY, AND COMMONWEALTH
Institutional Overview

Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania is a regional masters-comprehensive university, which enrolls approximately 6000 undergraduates and 1000 graduate students, and is one of 14 constituent institutions of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education. Founded in 1871, Shippensburg University serves the educational, social, and cultural needs of students primarily from southcentral Pennsylvania. The university serves students from throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Mid-Atlantic region, the United States, and internationally.

Shippensburg University was established in 1871 as the Cumberland Valley State Normal School. The school received official approval by the state on February 21, 1873, and admitted its first class of 217 students on April 15, 1873. In 1917 the school was purchased by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. On June 4, 1926, the school was authorized to grant the Bachelor of Science in education degree in elementary and junior high education. The school received a charter on October 12, 1926, making it the first normal school in Pennsylvania to become a state teachers college. On June 3, 1927, the State Council of Education authorized the school to change its name to the State Teachers College at Shippensburg.

The business education curriculum was approved on December 3, 1937. On December 8, 1939, Shippensburg State Teachers College became the first teachers college in Pennsylvania and the fourth in the United States to be accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and (Secondary) Schools. The State Council of Education approved graduate work leading to the master of education degree on January 7, 1959. On January 8, 1960, the name change to Shippensburg State College was authorized.

The arts and sciences curriculum was authorized by the State Council of Education on April 18, 1962, and the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree program was initiated on September 1, 1967. On November 12, 1982, the governor of the Commonwealth signed Senate Bill 506 establishing the State System of Higher Education. Shippensburg State College was designated Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania effective July 1, 1983.

Comprised of three academic colleges—Arts and Sciences, Business, and Education and Human Services, Shippensburg confers baccalaureate degrees (BA, BS, BBA, BSW), masters degrees (MA, MS, MSW, MEd), and professional doctoral degrees (EdD, DBA). The curricula are organized to enable students both to develop their intellectual abilities and to obtain professional training in a variety of fields. The foundation of the undergraduate curriculum is a required core of courses in the arts and sciences designed to impart skills in oral and written communication, critical thinking, quantitative reasoning, appreciation of diversity, and historical knowledge. The core is complemented by a general education program structured on a distribution model of courses focused on establishing breadth of knowledge in the humanities, natural sciences, and social sciences. The foundational core and general education program prepare students to think logically, read critically, write clearly, and verbalize ideas in a succinct and articulate manner; they also broaden students' knowledge of the world, past and present. Shippensburg is primarily a residential university, with the majority of students living either in campus housing or in private off-campus housing located in the immediate vicinity of the university. The campus provides a wide array of student services and activities, and is the cultural hub of the region.

The university's primary commitment is to student learning and personal development through effective and innovative classroom and laboratory teaching and a wide variety of high-impact out-of-class experiences. The ultimate goal is to have students develop to their utmost the intellectual, personal, and social capabilities they need to perform as competent citizens prepared to embark on a career immediately upon graduation or after advanced study. The university’s commitment to providing personal attention is reflective of the strong sense of community that exists on campus and the centrality of students within it. The university encourages and supports activities which give students many opportunities to apply the theories and methods learned in the classroom to real or practical situations, such as faculty-student research and student internships. Student life programs and activities complement the academic mission and further assist students in their personal, social, and ethical development.

Committed to public service and community-centered in its relationships to the region, the university works closely and collaboratively with other organizations at institutional, programmatic and individual levels to develop common goals, share resources and invest cooperatively in the future of the region.

Our Mission and Vision

In 2016, Shippensburg University launched a new strategic plan, which articulates the mission, vision, values, strategic goals, and aspirations of the university. The strategic plan unites units across campus—academic, operational, and student life—binding our community through a common mission and vision. Our actions are focused on common strategic directions, and guided by a common set of values.

- Mission: Student learning and personal development through highly effective and innovative teaching, complemented by a wide variety of out-of-class experiences, continue to serve as the hallmarks of a Shippensburg University education.

- Vision: To be recognized as the premier public [comprehensive] university in providing high quality education for students and a wide array of programs and services to meet the needs of South Central Pennsylvania and beyond. Overall, our purpose is to help build a better, stronger South Central Pennsylvania and beyond, economically and culturally, through recruiting, retaining, and developing students, faculty, and staff who have the abilities, skills, and values to compete and contribute to their community in an evolving world.
Our University Values

- STUDENT-CENTERED We provide all students – undergraduate, graduate, non-traditional, as well as non-degree seeking students – with access to high quality and challenging programs, co- and extracurricular activities, individual advisement and mentorship, support services, facilities, and resources to succeed at Shippensburg University and excel in their careers. We recruit and retain well-qualified faculty who have a passion for teaching and administrators whose greatest priority is providing high quality educational, administrative, and support services for these students.

- LEARNING The pursuit and generation of knowledge through intellectual engagement and integrated learning are at the forefront of our mission. We provide a quality, comprehensive, and distinctive education that develops broadly educated individuals who will learn, lead, and adapt throughout their lifetimes. We value the importance of classroom instruction and the responsible application of instructional technologies, competency-based learning, and self-acquired knowledge and skills. Experiential learning such as student-faculty research, internships, study-abroad programs, and service-learning projects that enhance campus and surrounding community life are essential parts of the overall learning experience.

- INNOVATION We are committed to continually improving our programs and services based on emergent trends and technologies, research-based practices, and professional standards. We also value the significant contributions made by student-faculty research to the growth and vitality of academic and professional disciplines and to the development of an “entrepreneurial spirit.”

- ENGAGEMENT We encourage all members of the campus community to be full partners in all aspects of our local and extended community. In addition to formal educational experiences, this includes participation in shared university governance, campus events and organizations, community service, student recruitment and retention, and alumni relations as well as being engaged citizens at the state and national level.

- ACCESS AND EQUITY We are a thriving campus community that strives for diversity among its members and equal access to educational and support resources for all. We value social equity and multiculturalism as means of promoting institutional innovation, problem solving, justice, fairness, and understanding.

- COMMUNITY We are the Shippensburg University family. Relationships among current and former students, faculty, staff, and administrators are characterized by trust, mutual respect, support, communication, cooperation, and acceptance, and they last a lifetime. We take seriously our impact on the borough of Shippensburg and the surrounding municipalities and value our collaborations with businesses and organizations in the region, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, our nation, and the world. These collaborations and relationships provide students with real-world experiences and connections that reach far beyond the borders of Shippensburg University.

Our Strategic Directions and Priorities

The operations of Shippensburg University are defined by our adherence to three strategic directions defined by our University Strategic Plan:

- STUDENT LEARNING AND ENGAGEMENT Build upon and support a personalized, balanced learning environment that engages students by utilizing high impact practices and providing additional experiential learning opportunities in the classroom and through co-curricular activities.

- EXCELLENCE AND INNOVATION Enhance and promote areas of pre-existing excellence and a supportive climate of innovation.

- COMMUNITY AND REGIONAL COLLABORATION Continue to practice civic engagement and collaboration among campus members. Our intent is to sustain and strengthen connections to the broader community and region.

These three strategic directions provide the conceptual framework for our university priorities, utmost of which is to provide every student with the opportunity to develop the intellectual, personal, and social capabilities they will need to pursue meaningful careers as thoughtful and enlightened citizens of our commonwealth and nation. To this end, we are committed to providing high impact learning opportunities to our students, including undergraduate research, internship placements, and service learning opportunities among others. Our commitment to engaging students on the deepest levels crosses divisional boundaries, evidenced by our prioritization of co-curricular learning opportunities, development of Living Learning Communities, and providing an environment supportive of all students in every facet of their campus life.

In pursuit of our educational mission, the university is committed to continuous improvement informed by critical self-examination through rigorous assessment and review processes. We are dedicated to the development of innovative pedagogies and student support services and the delivery of cutting-edge new programs, including the agile development of undergraduate, masters, and doctoral programs aligned with the needs of our current and prospective students, as well as the needs of our region.

As a public institution of higher education, we are collectively committed to public service on our campus and in our community. As an academic, economic and social anchor of our region we work collaboratively with stakeholders from our surrounding community to deepen common goals, share resources, and invest cooperatively in the future of our region. Our priorities include working closely with educational, government, and industry partners throughout our region to collectively make a positive impact on the future of our region.
Intended Outcomes of the Self-Study

Our self-study, coinciding as it does with the launch of our new strategic plan, provides the opportunity for us to better know our university, to celebrate our achievements, and to identify those challenges that still lay before us. This self-study will provide us the opportunity to thoughtfully review how well our operations align with our strategic directions and priorities, and will provide evidence and analysis, for both ourselves and our stakeholders, on our areas of excellence while simultaneously informing our process of continuous improvement. Our self-study will thus tell the story of how our strategic priorities as defined in our University Strategic Plan align with MSCHE standards and requirements of accreditation and will provide a guiding framework to inform our future directions.

Our specific intended outcomes include:

- Demonstrating how Shippensburg University currently meets Middle States Standards for Accreditation, with a focus on how our priorities as defined by the University Strategic Plan align with Middle States standards.
- Documenting current assessment practices to identify challenges and opportunities and making recommendations for improvement in the collection, analysis, and use of assessment data as we strive to meet our strategic goals and operationalize our common values.
- Engaging in an inclusive and transparent self-appraisal process that actively and deliberately seeks to involve members from all areas of the institutional community.
- Analyzing the quality and effectiveness of Shippenburg’s processes for planning and assessment in order to make necessary adjustments to methods and measurements and ensure that the use of assessment data will lead to meaningful programmatic and institutional renewal.
- Providing a concise and accurate analysis of the university, including annual updates and reports, that can guide our new president through her transition to Shippensburg.
- The development of 3-5 self-recommended areas for improvement for the next eight years.

Organizational Structure of the Steering Committee and Working Groups

The Self-Study Steering Committee was appointed by our interim president, Dr. Barbara Lyman, based on nominations submitted by the Deans of the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business, and Education and Human Services (for the Division of Academic Affairs), as well as the Vice Presidents of the Divisions of Student Affairs, Administration and Finance, External and University Relations, and Enrollment Management, Technology, and Library Services. Tracy Schoolcraft, Jose Ricardo, and Gretchen Pierce, will include the chairs of the nine working groups. Charges to the Working Groups and Guidelines for Reporting

General Charge to All Working Groups

Each working group will review university documents to determine the extent to which Shippensburg University meets the Standard of Accreditation and Requirements of Affiliation assigned to the group. Each working group will have an identified chair or co-chairs who will be responsible for coordinating the work of the committee, submitting drafts of reports on time, reporting to the Executive Committee, and working directly with the co-chairs of the Steering Committee to provide communication across the working groups and to represent their group and Steering Committee to various other constituency groups.

It is recommended that each working group appoint one or more members to fulfill each of the following tasks:

1. Chair or Co-chairs (if none yet identified): will call and facilitate meetings of the group
2. Recorder: will keep minutes of all meetings of the group, and save this to our shared drive (S: Drive)
3. Archivist: will help to identify and gaps in the Document Roadmap, and to save any relevant documents to the S: Drive
4. Analyst: will review any data relevant to the working group’s standard and report back to the group
5. Report writer: will serve as the primary author of the brief (c. 15pp) report on the working groups conclusions, to be presented to the Executive Committee in May 2018.
6. An identified skeptic, playing the role of a devil’s advocate, who will serve to question in a constructive way the work, findings, and recommendations of the working group. (However, to ensure that questions or concerns of the skeptic do not overburden the working group, the skeptic will be co-responsible not only for the quality assurance of the working group’s efforts, findings, and recommendations but also for the submission of draft reports on-time).
7. Proof-reader

The study must be problem-oriented, evaluate how well the university is meeting the Standards of Accreditation and Requirements of Affiliation while seeking answers to central questions and solutions to identified challenges. It needs to be based on evidence and data collected by the work group and measured where possible against the university’s mission, goals, and vision. Each group should document which items they used from the inventory of existing support documents (the Document Roadmap) as well as any new data elements that they collected in order to address the questions raised. Each report should be analytical and interpretive rather than simply descriptive, and it should result in conclusions that can be reformulated into recommendations that will, if necessary, modify current goals, plans and practices of the university. The single most important aim of the self-study is the intentional and continuous improvement of teaching and learning at Shippensburg University through the implementation of our University Strategic Plan.
Specific tasks and central questions for each work group are given below. As methodological approaches are considered and data are gathered for the work group’s study, it may expound upon these questions or add others, and draw upon the resources of the Office of Institutional Research and Planning. Staff support is being provided by Heather Wadas in the Office of the Provost.

Each working group is expected to comply with the following guidelines:

- The working group will meet at least once monthly, beginning in August, 2017, to complete the requirements of its charge.
- Each working group will keep minutes of all meetings, and these will be stored on the S: Drive.
- The membership of each group will read and develop familiarity with the Middle States Requirements of Affiliation and Standards for Accreditation, 13th edition.
- Each group will review, and fill any perceived gaps in, the Document Roadmap.
- Each group will receive reasonable administrative support from the Office of the Provost, as approved by the Associate Provost.
- Each working group will submit a final report to the Executive Committee no later than May 15, 2018.
- The report should make clear and specific reference to any relevant documents used by the working group in compiling the report.
- The report will focus on how well the institution is meeting the expectations defined by the Standard for Accreditation and Requirement(s) of Affiliation assigned to the working group. The report should include analysis of the institution’s strengths and weaknesses as well as its challenges and opportunities in regard to the Standard and Requirement(s) in question. The report should also include any recommendations that the working group would like to make on areas for improvement identified during this process.
- The working groups should recognize that their submitted reports will be used as source information for the authors of the Self-Study document, and may or may not appear in their submitted form in that final document.
