

UKRAINE UNDER ATTACK

THURSDAY, MARCH 17

6:30PM–8:00PM • ORNDORFF THEATER (CUB 123)

HISTORY AND POLITICS BEHIND THE CRISIS

Join a panel of Shippensburg's experts to gain deeper insights into Russia's invasion of Ukraine. The panelists will give brief presentations offering their perspectives on the crisis and then take questions from the audience:

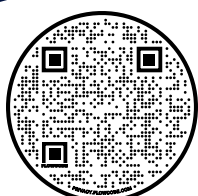

Dr. Catherine Clay (retired), specializes in Russian history and was a Fulbright scholar in Ukraine's capital of Kiev in 1999.

Dr. Mark Sachleben, specializes in European politics and international relations.

Dr. David Wildermuth, specializes in Russian-German relations and the World Wars in Europe.

Moderated by Dr. Jonathan Skaff, Director of International Studies.

Sponsored by Global Languages and Cultures, History/Philosophy, and Political Science Departments, Shippensburg ROTC, and the International Studies Program.

Free and open to the public.
For information on the International Studies
major or minor and Peace Corps Prep Program, visit ship.edu/ism.

