Volunteers are needed to talk, read, play games, play cards, and create crafts with the residents. Volunteers can also help out with passing out snacks and helping with meals. A form, provided by the facility, is asked to be filled out before volunteers begin working.