Checklist for Applied History Master’s Degree
(Effective Fall 2010)

Masters of Arts in Applied History Course of Study

Required (12 credits)
( ) HIS 600: Computerized Historical Research Methods (3crs) or ( ) HIS 601: Research in Local and Regional History (3 crs)

and
( ) HIS 501: Introduction to Applied History (3crs)

and Internship Option or Thesis Option or
Student Teaching option
( ) HIS 609 Internship I (3 crs)
( ) HIS 612 Thesis I (3 crs)
( ) EDU 495
( ) HIS 610 Internship II (3 crs)
( ) HIS 613 Thesis II (3 crs)
( ) Student Teaching (6crs)

Restricted Electives (9 credits)
( ) History of the Americas (3crs) HIS__________ ( ) Global Connections/Comparisons (3 crs) HIS__________ ( ) Applied History Skills (3crs) HIS__________

History Electives (9 credits)
( ) HIS____________________________ (3 crs)
( ) HIS____________________________ (3 crs)
( ) HIS____________________________ (3 crs)

Interdisciplinary Electives
With permission of their graduate advisor and the department chair, students may substitute up to two graduate courses (six credits) for their History Electives. These courses should come from other Shippensburg University departments and help students to fulfill their personal interests and professional objectives.

The following courses fulfill the Restricted Elective distribution requirements:

History of the Americas: HIS 402, HIS 428, HIS 430, HIS 490*, HIS 513, HIS 515, HIS 516, HIS 519, HIS 525, HIS 526, HIS 592*, HIS 599,* HIS 601 (if not used to satisfy the research requirement).

Global Connections/Comparisons: HIS 407, HIS 410, HIS 421, HIS 423, HIS 454, HIS 490*, HIS 499, HIS 510, HIS 512, HIS 514, HIS 532, HIS 534, HIS 535, HIS 540, HIS 543,HIS 545, HIS 550, HIS 555, HIS 558, HIS 562, HIS 593*, HIS 599*.

Applied History Skills: HIS 505, HIS 433, HIS 502, HIS594.

*With advisement (contact your advisor to discuss how this course fits into your course of study).

If you have question about these requirements, or how a particular course may fit into the curriculum (especially courses not listed above), please speak to your graduate advisor of the History Department Director of Graduate Studies.

12/13