Plans being finalized for Winter Commencement

Plans are being finalized for the Winter Commencement ceremonies. The graduate ceremony is 7 p.m. Dec. 11 in the H. Ric Luhrs Performing Arts Center. The undergraduate ceremony is 11 a.m. Dec. 12 in Heiges Field House.

Speakers for both ceremonies will be announced as soon as they are selected. University employees are reminded that if a family member is graduating at the undergraduate ceremony, they may present the diploma cover personally to the graduate. If you wish to do so, please send a note with the undergraduate's name and degree no later than Dec. 4 to Dr. Peter M. Gigliotti, Commencement Committee chair, at pmgigl@ship.edu.

Faculty who wish to order academic regalia are asked to contact the University Store at ext. 1600 from on campus or 477-1600 from off campus. For the undergraduate ceremony, doors to the field house arena will open at 9 a.m., or earlier in the case of inclement weather, for guests. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis. Tickets for the reserved seating section are available by sending an e-mail to Gigliotti by Dec. 4.

Faculty are asked to use the lobby entrance to Heiges if they are participating. Faculty will assemble by 10:30 a.m. in the locker room areas. Women faculty will robe in the Lady Raiders locker room. Men will robe in the main men's locker room.

The academic procession will form at 10:45 a.m. and start promptly at 11 a.m. The mace bearer will lead the procession, followed by the graduating class, faculty, trustees and administrators, and the platform party. The mace bearer will lead the recessional followed by the platform party, trustees and administrators, and faculty.

More information is available at www.ship.edu/graduation.

If you have any questions about participation in the undergraduate ceremony, please call Gigliotti at ext. 1202 or send him an e-mail.
Kudos

Dr. DAVID BATEMAN, professor in the Department of Educational Leadership and Special Education, gave the keynote address at the Council of Administrators of Special Education’s annual international conference Oct. 29-31 in Atlanta, Ga. The title of his address was “Principals as Special Education Leaders.”

Dr. WENDY BECKER, professor of management, presented her research “Increasing Student Engagement in Management Education” at the Southern Management Association conference on Oct. 30 in St. Pete Beach, Fla.

Dr. GWEN DURHAM, assistant professor of teacher education, took student mentors from the Martin Luther King Academic Retention Program to the Robert D. Lynch Student Leadership Development Institute’s 29th annual Pennsylvania Black Conference on Higher Education, held Oct. 30 to Nov. 1 in Lancaster. The conference mission is to ensure that post-secondary educational needs of African Americans are met.

Dr. SHARON HARROW, professor of English, had her edited collection British Sporting Literature and Culture in the Long Eighteenth Century published by Ashgate Press and her chapter “Ideology and Satire in English Bareknuckle Boxing Literature” published by Peter Lang in the collection Cultures of Boxing in October.

In addition, she will chair a session titled “Adapting the Eighteenth Century: Pedagogies and Practices” at the American Society for 18th-Century Studies’ annual conference in March. She recently was named to a two-year term as co-chair of the society’s women’s caucus.

Dr. DAVID KALIST, professor and chair of the Department of Economics, served as external reviewer on a manuscript submitted to Journal of Labor Research.

Dr. IAN LANGELO, professor and chair of supply chain management, recently served as a doctoral committee member at the Indian School of Mines for a dissertation on the strategic interaction between supply chain and management information systems.

Dr. AGNES RAGONE, professor of Spanish and French, presented her co-authored paper “Exploring Sustainability in La Gonave Island, Haiti” at the 2015 annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Geographic Society on Nov. 6. She also had her article “Lalo Alcaraz: Political Humour Across Borders” published in the current issue of Journal of Graphic Novels and Comics. In addition, she will have two book reviews in the December issue of Journal of American Culture: “Miera y Pacheco: A Renaissance Spaniard in Eighteenth Century” and “Bayou Country Bloodsport: The Culture of Cockfighting in Southern Louisiana.”

Dr. JOSÉ RICARDO-OSORIO, associate professor and chair of the Modern Languages Department, was a keynote speaker and workshop facilitator at the Second International Conference on Applied Linguistics at the Universidad Nacional de Costa Rica held Oct. 28-30. He also presented the session “An Assessment-Centered Approach to Student Learning: Best Practices in SLOs Era” at the Pennsylvania State Modern Language Association’s fall conference in King of Prussia on Oct. 17.

Dr. NICOLE SANTALUCIA, instructor of English, had her book of poems Because I Did Not Die published by Bordighera Press in October and five new poems published in Radar, an online poetry journal. She will read from her book at Whistlestop Bookshop in Carlisle on Nov. 20. She also presented a paper and gave a poetry reading at the recent Italian American Studies Association conference in Washington, D.C., and was invited to host poetry workshops and the “Diversity Monologue” event at Dickinson College this fall.

Dr. MATTHEW SHUPP, NCC, DCC, assistant professor in the Department of Counseling and College Student Personnel, recently co-presented the webinar “Synergistic Supervision of Entry-Level Student Affairs Professionals: A Cross-Cultural Examination” for NASPA | Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education’s online learning initiative. He also presented a lecture on the importance of multicultural competence in the supervisory relationship at the Pennsylvania College Personnel Association’s annual convention in Gettysburg.

Dr. CHERYL SLATTERY, associate professor of teacher education, and STEPHANIE JIRARD, professor of criminal justice, presented at the Association of Literacy Educators and Researchers’ annual conference in Costa Mesa, Calif., Nov. 5-7. Their presentation was on working with minority families at or near the poverty line that have children in the primary grades, in the capacity of using culturally relevant common household routines and traditions to build literacy skills at home.

Faculty, staff asked to take library survey

In an effort to improve its services to the university and the broader community, the Ezra Lehman Memorial Library participates every few years in an extensive national user satisfaction survey called LibQUAL+. The online survey asks for input on areas where users think the library does well and where services could be improved.

The survey will be open through Nov. 20. All students, faculty and staff are asked to complete the survey. Once connected to the LibQUAL+ website, the survey should take no more than 10 minutes to complete. The survey link is located at library.ship.edu/LibrarySurvey.

Participation is voluntary, confidential and in accordance with the procedures of the university’s Institutional Review Board.

Everyone completing the survey will have the option to be included in a random drawing for more than 50 prizes, including the grand prize of a Samsung Galaxy Tab 4.

Grades due Dec. 15

Fall 2015 grades are due by 3 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 15.

Grade submission will be enabled in the myShip portal on Friday, Dec. 4.

All grades will be processed online.

Fact

Fact is published by the Office of University Communications and Marketing for current and retired employees. The next issue is Nov. 30. The deadline to submit material to SUNews@ship.edu is noon on Monday the week before publication.

Shippensburg University is an equal-opportunity educational institution.
Human Understanding proposals are due Jan. 15

The Office of Social Equity has opened its call for Human Understanding proposals for spring and summer 2016.

The submission deadline is Jan. 15.

Proposals must be aligned with university-wide goals as they pertain to inclusion and diversity.

Consistent with Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education goals and Middle States recommendations, proposals that address issues of retention and recruitment of students, faculty and other members of the community, especially among under-represented populations, will receive greater consideration.

The rationale for the program must be addressed, and the theory underlying the implementation must be given.

All proposals must address how a program will be evaluated. Measures must bear a relationship to the stated program goals. While program effectiveness may not be immediately demonstrated after one funded term, it is expected that ongoing programs will demonstrate the value of past experience through corrective or adjusted program components.

Previously funded programs must address alignment to system-wide and/or university goals to continue receiving this funding.

All after-action reports must be on file for previously awarded proposals for future awards to be considered.

All proposals must be e-mailed to Vicky Tosten at vjtosten@ship.edu by 4:30 p.m. Jan. 15 to be considered. Early submissions are appreciated.

For additional information, including guidelines on eligibility and format, go to www.ship.edu/social_equity/ or contact Cecil Howard, executive director of social equity, at ext. 1161.

Employee recognition deadline is Nov. 30

Nominations for this year's Employee Recognition Program are due to Human Resources by Nov. 30.

The program provides a way for department managers, supervisors and coworkers to formally recognize employees for exceptional performance. Recognition and rewards play an important role in making the university a great place to work.

The award criteria again will include five categories:

- Innovative idea
- Team effort
- Problem solving
- Customer service
- Community/volunteer service

Nominated service or actions must fall into at least one of these areas.

Nominations may be submitted anytime to Human Resources; however, Nov. 30 is the deadline for awards to be presented at the annual holiday party, which will be held in January.

Copies of the policy and nomination form are available at www.ship.edu/HR/Forms/.
