Students can take 6 credits from any combination of: The 6 courses listed below or courses beyond the requirements from any GOAL category on the left side of this page.

- PSY 374 Advanced Research I
- PSY 375 Advanced Research II
- PSY 379 Capstone Seminar in Psychology
- PSY 393 Selected Topics in Psychology
- PSY 395 Seminar in Selected Topics
- PSY 490 Selected Topics in Psychology

CAPSTONE

Can be fulfilled in one of the following ways:

- PSY 379 Capstone Seminar in Psychology
- Internship (at least 3 credits)
- Advanced Research I or II

Capstone Requirements:

All Psychology majors must fulfill the capstone requirement as a requirement for graduation. Students must meet this requirement by taking at least one of the following courses: Advanced Research I or II, Internship, or PSY 379 Capstone Seminar in Psychology (prerequisites of this course are 21 credits in Psychology and junior or senior status).

INTERNSHIPS (COUNTS AS A FREE ELECTIVE)

- PSY 385 Internship I
- PSY 386 Internship II

Note: Students can take PSY 385 Internship I, or both PSY 385 and PSY 386 Internship II.

However, INTERNSHIP DOES NOT APPLY to the 39 credits required for the major. INTERNSHIP can be used as additional free electives and 3 credits of Internship does satisfy the Capstone requirement. If your internship involves one-to-one confidential and personal interaction with clients, you must take PSY 384 (Person to Person Interaction) prior to your internship. Likewise, if it involves group interaction, you must take PSY 361 (Group Interaction) prior to your internship. If your internship will involve interaction with children, you must have taken a child psychology or child development course prior to your internship. Comparable training may qualify. Please discuss your preparation with your agency, faculty internship coordinator, or the department internship coordinator.

Note: As a student, it is your responsibility to make sure you are progressing through the Major, General Education, and other requirements to graduate in a timely fashion.

Updated Spring, 2012

*PSY 352 Psychology of Adulthood and Aging satisfies either KNOWLEDGE BASE or SOCIAL AWARENESS GOALS but not both.
