

Applied History Master's Degree

Required Core (6 credits)

- _____ HIS 501: Intro to Applied History (3 cr)
- _____ HIS 600: Historical Research Methods (3 cr)

Required Capstone (6 credits)

- | | | |
|-------------------------------------|----|---------------------------------|
| Internship Option | OR | Thesis Option |
| _____ HIS 609: Internship I (3 cr) | | _____ HIS 612: Thesis I (3 cr) |
| _____ HIS 610: Internship II (3 cr) | | _____ HIS 613: Thesis II (3 cr) |

Restricted Electives (9 credits)

- _____ History of the Americas (3cr)
- _____ Global Connections/Comparisons (3 cr)
- _____ Applied History Skills (3cr)

History Electives (9 credits)

- _____ _____ (3 cr)
- _____ _____ (3 cr)
- _____ _____ (3 cr)

History Electives may be fulfilled either with History graduate courses or with permission of their graduate advisor and the department chair, students may substitute up to two graduate courses from other disciplines (a total of six credits) for their History Electives. These courses should come from other Shippensburg University departments and help students to fulfill their personal interests and professional objectives.

CONCENTRATIONS

Students may opt to pursue one of the following concentrations. Students pursuing a concentration should consult with their advisor to develop an internship or thesis that provides them with additional expertise in their field of concentration.

Concentration in Community History and Preservation

Required (6 credits):

- _____ HIS 601: Research in Local and Regional History
- _____ HIS 539: Historic Preservation Practice & Advocacy

Elective (3 credits):

- _____ HIS 413: Pennsylvania History
- _____ HIS 430: U.S. Cultural History
- _____ HIS 433: Oral History
- _____ POL 522: Advocacy in Public Administration
- _____ HIS 505: Advanced Topics in Public History
- _____ HIS 549 or 599 with advisement.

Concentration in Museum Studies

Required (6 credits):

- _____ HIS 542: Textile History & Museum Practices
- _____ HIS 541: Museum Education

Elective (3 credits):

- _____ HIS 430: U.S. Cultural History
- _____ HIS 433: Oral History
- _____ HIS 460: Archives and Public History
- _____ HIS 502: Introduction to Archives
- _____ HIS 505: Advanced Topics in Public History
- _____ HIS 549 or 599 with advisement.