

Interview Questions:

1. Tell us about your interest in mathematics.
2. Describe your decision to teach mathematics.
3. Describe your personal and/or professional strengths that will support the building of productive learning relationships with students.
4. Describe your desire to work with diverse student populations in a high needs school district.
5. State one question that you wish we had asked and did not. How would you answer it?